Sheriff Turner Appointed to Criminal Justice Training Commission by Governor

The Walla Walla County Sheriff's Office is pleased to share the gubernatorial appointment of Sheriff John Turner as a Criminal Justice Training Commission member.

According to the Governor's website at <http://www.governor.wa.gov/boards/profiles/1000154.aspx>, the Criminal Justice Training Commission develops and implements training standards and programs designed to upgrade criminal justice personnel and establishes standards relating to physical, mental and moral fitness for recruiting criminal justice personnel. The Commission is comprised of two incumbent sheriffs; two incumbent chiefs of police; an officer at or below the level of first line supervisor from a county law enforcement agency and one officer at or below the level of first line supervisor from a municipal law enforcement agency with at least ten years experience; one county correctional system employee; one state correctional system employee; one incumbent county prosecuting attorney or municipal attorney; one local government elected official; and one member of the general public.

Both the Washington Association of Sheriffs & Police Chiefs (WASPC) and the Washington State Sheriffs' Association (WSSA) formally recommended Sheriff Turner for this appointment.

Hoquiam Police Chief Jeff Myers, Chairman of the Criminal Justice Training Commission commented today, "On behalf of the Criminal Justice Training Commission, we are looking forward to adding Sheriff John Turner to our ranks. His appointment by Governor Inslee will replace retiring Sheriff Garry Lucas of Clark County, which are certainly big shoes to fill. I am excited for Sheriff Turner's experience and passion for criminal justice training- both from his perspective as the Sheriff of Walla Walla County, but also as a criminal justice professional from Eastern Washington."
